A (freelance) talk on 'Rights of women and law for protection of women rights' was delivered today at the Main Conference Hall at 11.30 a.m. organised by the Prevention of Sexual Harassment Cell cum Internal Complaints Committee.

The meeting started with the reading of the College song and the lamp was lighted by Pradhin Misra for the occasion. Dr. Rashmi Rekha Gosai spoke a few words about the objectives of the meeting. Ms. Pratima Gosai dwelt in length about the issues of women and how our girl students ^{need to} be alert and conscious about their rights and the legal protection about their rights.

The outcome was fruitful in the sense that our students came to know about certain vital aspects and knowledge of existing laws regarding protection of women rights.

Report of the awareness drive held on 7/11/2022 कार्य विवरण

A meeting, discussion and awareness and sensitisation drive on "Early Marriage, Sexual harassment, cyber crime and moral values" was organised by Navuddit Sawaj in association with prevention of sexual harassment committee ^{unit} and IQAC, Sibsagar Girls College.

Several social activists - Mrs. Dipali Bhattacharyee, Mr. Farid Islam, Hazarika, Mr. Dhanu Bora, Mr. Khalid Rahman Hazarika were the spokespersons of the awareness and sensitisation drive. The issues on early marriage, prevention of sexual harassment as well as safety and security of the female folk was discussed in detail. The spokespersons also expressed great concern about the trafficking of teenaged girls from Sibsagar to other parts of India. Suggestions were put forward whereby a common forum consisting of police officials, officials from the administration and public together would go a long way in stopping such activities from recurring time and again. Around 60 students alongwith 30 Teachers and a number of guests were present in the sensitisation and awareness drive.
